The Grandmaster "Iron" Kim Style
Always Having the Skill and Ability to Demonstrate

Founded in the US 1972 © 1993

One of the many personal achievements of Grandmaster "Iron" Kim is the Kyong Gong Sul Bope (flying side kick). Above is Grandmaster jumping from the top of a building. (The roof is visible in the lower right corner). In 1970, Grandmaster "Iron" Kim demonstrated Kyong Gong Sul Bope by jumping from the equivalent of an 11-story building. In 1972, Grandmaster "Iron" Kim again demonstrated the Kyong Gong Sul Bope movement by jumping from the equivalent of an 8-story building both times landing without injury onto a sloped surface below.

Outstanding Service Organization of the Year Award

October 1, 2013

School of Oom Yung Doe
20 W Broadway St
Oviedo Fl 32765

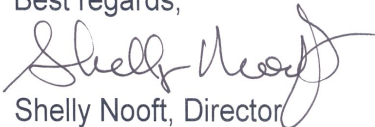

Dear Mr. Leniham and Mr. Sullivan,

Congratulations to the School of Oom Yung Doe on winning the "Outstanding Service Organization of the Year Award" at the 28th Annual Eddie Rose Appreciation Night. Your contribution of community service and long hours of dedicated work are a great example of what one organizations unselfishness and caring can accomplish for so many in need.

You provide much needed support to the City and our special needs citizens. Thank you for enriching their lives by offering these outstanding programs that help maintain mind and body.

We recognize that the programs and events we offer cannot be successful without the commitment of our volunteers, partners and sponsors and we are proud of our relationship with you.

Thank you again for your continued support. Please enjoy the enclosed photo as another token of our appreciation.

Best regards,

Shelly Nooft, Director
Department of Leisure Services

Where there is a will, there is a way.

The tiger is symbolic of the physical world and the dragons signify the mental or spiritual world. Together the symbols represent a harmony between both worlds. The Chinese symbol Yin/Yang (Oom/Yung) stands for balance of life.
